DEAR MR. PRESIDENT,

I understand your concern for the security of the United States... You wish to ensure the security of your country, and this is understandable. But Cuba, too, wants the same thing; all countries want to maintain their security. But how are we, the Soviet Union, to understand the fact that you have surrounded the Soviet Union with military bases; surrounded our allies with military bases; placed military bases literally around our country; and stationed your missile armaments there? This is no secret. Your missiles are located in Britain, are located in Italy, and are aimed against us. Your missiles are located in Turkey.

You are disturbed over Cuba. You say that this disturbs you because it is 90 miles by sea from the coast of the United States of America. But you have placed destructive missile weapons, which you call "offensive", in Turkey, literally next to us.

I therefore make this proposal: We are willing to remove from Cuba the missiles which you regard as offensive. Your representatives will make a declaration that the United States will remove its missiles from Turkey.

We, in making this pledge, will promise not to invade Turkey if the United States Government will promise not to invade Cuba. The greatest joy for all peoples would be the announcement of our agreement. These are my proposals, Mr. President.

Respectfully yours,
N. Khrushchev

Nikita Khrushchev
