

Name _____

Imperialism Review

Directions: Use the word bank to complete each statement.

1. The _____ occurred because the British didn't respect Indian culture or religious beliefs.
2. The _____ sparked the need for raw materials and markets for finished products.
3. In the _____ the British fought the Dutch for control of South Africa.
4. At the _____ European powers decided on the rules for colonizing Africa.
5. The _____ in India and the Boxer Rebellion in China both attempted to rid their countries of foreign rule.
6. China and Japan chose not have contact with other cultures because they believed their culture was superior to all others. This feeling is called _____.
7. As a result of the Sepoy Mutiny, India became a _____ of Britain.
8. Japan opened trade with America, ending 200 years of isolation, after a visit by _____.
9. In order to fight off Western powers, the Japanese decided they must _____.
10. Positive effects of imperialism on India and Africa were the Europeans _____ and _____.
11. Imperial control is most strict in a _____.
12. China was carved into _____, which means the European nation would have exclusive trading rights in that one area.
13. Japan and other European countries imperialized because they needed to acquire _____.
14. Negative effects of imperialism were the Europeans destroyed local industries and _____.

15. Most of the Indian population is of the _____ religion.
Religious beliefs included the caste system and reincarnation.
16. Demand for raw materials, the desire to spread western culture, and the desire to expand an empire were all motives for _____.
17. After they modernized, Japan began to imperialize because they lacked _____.
18. Before the 1800s, China and Japan had seen Westerners as barbarians so the two countries wanted to remain _____.
19. The time period of modernization of Japan into a powerful imperialist and industrial nation is known as the _____.
20. The natives of India were unable to fight off _____ because they lacked modern military technology.
21. Europeans were able to take control of _____ because they had superior military technology and the ruling dynasty was in decline.
22. According to the Europeans, it is their duty and obligation to civilize the natives and spread their superior culture. This belief is known as the _____.
23. The grabbing of colonies in Africa by European nations was known as the _____.
24. The _____, often compared to the Sepoy Mutiny, was an attempt to rid a country of foreign rule.
25. Western nations often used the theory of _____ to justify imperialism by saying that the stronger nations will survive and the weaker ones will be taken over.
26. During the time period known as _____, Japan was isolated and had very little technology.
27. The motives for colonization in the 1500s were _____.
28. Because of discontent and hunger in China, the _____ occurred.
29. _____ went to the new worlds to spread Christianity.
This was a _____ cause of imperialism.
30. _____ established China as a republic in 1911.

31. After the Opium War, China had to give Britain _____.

This area was returned to the Chinese in 2000.

32. A _____ is a type of imperial control in which local rulers remain in place as long as they accept the advice of the European powers.

33. The name Meiji means _____.

34. The Opium War ended with the _____, the first of a series of unequal treaties that China was forced to sign.

35. The _____ officially opened Japanese ports to foreign trade.

Word Banks

Numbers 1-12	Numbers 13-26	Numbers 27-35
ethnocentrism	Hindu	social
Industrial Revolution	imperialism	Hong Kong
Sepoy Rebellion	Britian	enlightened rule
Sepoy Mutiny	native culture	Taiping Rebellion
modernize	China	Treaty of Kanagawa
sphere of influence	Meiji Restoration	gold, God & glory
built hospitals	natural resources	Sun Yetsen
Berlin Conference	raw materials	protectorate
colony	Scramble for Africa	missionaries
colony	social Darwinism	Treaty of Nanjing
Boer War	Tokagawa
Matthew Perry	isolated
improved transportation	White Man's Burden
	Boxer Rebellion	